

(2) Status reports and activity logs produced by SAUSA Watson include significant details related to ongoing cases in the U.S. Attorney's Office including discussions with AUSA Taylor and others. Per the Touhy rules these documents cannot be released without DOJ approval.

(3) The successor SAUSA's contract/MOU provides for termination of the SAUSA's services upon thirty (30) days' notice by either the City or the SAUSA. See, Contract/MOU of Blake Watson. [Bates Stamp Nos. 0464-0468]. SAUSA Watson remains in his position in accord with his satisfactory performance.

(4) Predecessor SAUSAs

The successor SAUSA's caseload records are contained in his "activity notes." However, these notes contain information related to open criminal investigation files, confidential informants, notations related to edits involving indictments, plea agreements, as well as information related to debriefing of those with criminal charges. As such, these "activity notes" are considered highly confidential and subject to Touhy approval from the DOJ before being distributed. The federal court PACER System is capable of providing the information sought by this request and can be as easily accessed by the Plaintiff as by the Defendant. See, also Bates Stamp Nos. 1385-1389 and 1390-1400].
